SOCIAL and PERSONAL

The Governor of Virginia and Mrs. Henry C. Stuart will be hosts at the dance this evening, which was postponed from last night on account of the indisposition of Mrs. Stuart. The dance, which is the first of a series for which the Chief Executive and his wife have issued invitations, is to be held in the Governor's Mansion and will be a very handsome function. The second entertainment will be given on Friday evening at the mansion.

Supper Dance To-Morrow Night.

Fashionable society will be much in evidence to-morrow night at the supper dance to be given in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel from 8 to 11 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Pace Griner and Mrs. R. W. Hawkesworth. There will be some special dancing by Miss Margaret Hawkesworth and Basil Durant, and a large contingent of the smart set has already reserved tables for the event.

The "the-dance" under the same management will be held at the Jefferson on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock.

Back From Abroad.

Miss Clara J. Wadley, who has been abroad for the past year, returned to Richmond on Monday evening, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. E. W. Wadley, who went to New York to meet her. Miss Wadley has been the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Captain and Mrs. Robertson, at Langdale, India, and has been much entertained during her stay in the East, some very handsome functions having been given in her honor at several English army posts.

Ball at the Richmond.

A sort of "level" spring flowers will be used to decorate the ballroom of the Richmond Hotel this evening for the big ball to be held there from 8:30 to 1 o'clock under the direction of Miss Nora White. The tables, where supper will be served throughout the evening, will be arranged about the cleared space in the center for dancing, and the musicians' gallery will be decorated in small lights in palm trees. These balls at the Richmond have been among the most interesting social functions of the late winter and spring season, and the tables are thronged on each occasion with a large and company of well-known people. Tonight there will be several special dances with a number of unique and interesting features.

Prominent Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon H. Fleming, formerly of this city, but now of Branchland, West Va., have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Elsie, to Monroe Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Shaw, of Fort Thomas, Ky. The wedding is to take place on April 1st at the home of the bride's parents.

Dance Last Evening.

The President's Club gave a dance last evening at the Jefferson Club, when thirty couples were entertained. The ballroom was decorated in palms, bay trees and spring blossoms, and the cards for the cotillion were embossed with the monogram of the club and tied with yellow tassels. The club includes some of the most prominent people in town, and the dance was a charming affair in every detail.

Entertains the Book Club.

At a literary round table arranged by the hostess, Mrs. W. B. Goodwyn, at her home in Emporia, for the Book Club, on Friday evening "David Copperfield" was the book discussed. The responses were quotations from David Copperfield. Mrs. E. B. Goodwyn led the discussion by giving a synopsis of the story. This was followed by an exposition of the characters of "Traddles" and "Steerforth" by Mrs. L. L. Taylor. "Miss Betsey Trotwood" was delineated by Miss Marjorie Atkinson. Mrs. W. W. Robertson compared "Dora" and "Agnes" as types of women. Mrs. W. T. Tullar portrayed the "Micawbers."

A contest, consisting of questions on the book, followed the program. The prizes were won by Mrs. W. B. Dow and Mrs. W. W. Robertson. Refreshments were served later in the evening.

These present besides those taking part in the program were: Mrs. E. S. Robinson, Mrs. Stanley Durr, Mrs. E. P. Turner, Mrs. J. B. Bailey, Mrs. George Roszell, Mrs. A. L. Davis, of Petersburg; the Misses Turner and Miss Prince.

Gwaltney-Vaughan.
A number of Richmond people will leave town to-day to attend the marriage of Miss Ora Boss Vaughan, daughter of Mrs. Julia B. Vaughan, and Dr. William Ryland Gwaltney, which will be celebrated this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Zion Baptist Church.

Seymour Sycle

11 West Broad Street,

at Delatville. Both bride and groom have a great many relatives and friends in this city.

Miss Margaret La Motte, of Baltimore, and her mother, Mrs. Frank La Motte, were in Richmond yesterday, en route for the Gwaltney-Vaughan wedding, at which the former will act as bridesmaid.

At the Art Club.

A large audience was present at the Art Club of Richmond yesterday afternoon to hear Miss Douglas Wright speak on her work in the rural schools of Virginia. It was an unusually interesting and instructive address, and gave a very clear and exact account of that special movement in the State. Miss Wright, who is secretary of the Co-Operative Education Association, of which Mrs. B. B. Munford is president, is a delightful speaker, and her talk was most pleasing.

Mrs. Stafford Phillips was chairman of the afternoon and the club was decorated in bows of tulips and jonquils. Tea was served after the lecture.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walter Hurley, of Urbana, announce the engagement of their daughter, Edna Pearl, to Mark Leslie Turnage, of Greenville, N. C. The wedding will be celebrated some time in June.

Benefit Performance.
St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will have a benefit performance at the Hotel corner of Fifth and Broad Streets, on Friday from 10 A. M. to 11 P. M. A number of prominent society women have consented to act as patronesses for the entertainment. Mrs. W. A. Cheswood, Mrs. Lee Davis and Mrs. C. W. Massie form the committee that will have the affair in charge.

Dr. Eschenwein's Lectures.

Richmond people are much interested in the announcement that the talks and conferences on the short story will be given at the home of Miss Mary Coles Carrington, 1420 Grove Avenue, by Dr. J. Berg Eschenwein. These talks will be held to-night and to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. A number of literary people are interested in these affairs, and the classes include some of the leading men and women of Richmond.

Dr. Eschenwein is a member of the Franklin Inn Club of Philadelphia, a director of the Browning Society, and a member of the Society of Arts and Letters. In a broader way he has also been active in leading membership in the London Authors' Club and the Authors' League of America. He was for some years a director of the Periodical Publishers' Association and has recently been chosen for fellowship in the Royal Society of Arts, London.

Meeting This Morning.

The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will meet this morning at 11 o'clock in the Confederate Museum. All members are urged to attend.

Interesting Charity Event.

An interesting charity event to be given under fashionable patronage is the organ recital at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Friday night at 8 o'clock. The Junior Auxiliary of the church has been in charge of the affair, and the program will be rendered by the following well-known musicians: Miss Annie Louise Reinhardt, violinist; Miss Jessie Savers, soprano; Ernest Cosby, A. G. O. organist; Ralph Ludwig, tenor.

Marriage Announced.

James John White has announced the marriage of his mother, Mrs. Nellie DuVal White, to John Francis Lewis, of Lynwood. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride in St. Louis, on Monday. Mr. Lewis is the son of the late John F. Lewis, of Virginia, and is well known here. He is owner of the Lynwood Stock Farm in East Riverdale, and is a leading horseman of the State.

To Give Musical.

The Pastor's Aid Society of Seventh Street Christian Church will give a musical in the Church Annex, 607 East Grace Street, to-morrow evening at 8:30 o'clock. A very attractive program has been arranged, including an orchestra of fourteen pieces, and solos by Miss Jo Ford Frank, vocal teacher at the Woman's College; Miss Amorette Allen and Hugh B. Bugg. The concert is given under the direction of W. S. Tupman, organist of the church.

Meeting Postponed.

The social service meeting, which was to have been held at Centenary Church at 4 o'clock this afternoon, has been postponed. At the meeting to be held later, an address will be delivered by Dr. Margaret Kuyk.

In and Out of Town.

FIFTEEN MEET APPROVAL

Governor Stuart Clears Desk of Many Local Legislative Matters.

MANY BILLS STILL PENDING

Juvenile Delinquency and First Degree Murder Acts Approved.

Governor Stuart cleared his desk yesterday of fifty-four routine and local bills, which were returned to the Governor of the Rolls with executive approval. There are about 100 measures yet pending in the Governor's office, including several on which the advice of the Attorney-General has been invited.

The following measures were approved yesterday:

Senate bill 40—"Mobile bill," regulating fraternal beneficiary associations.

Senate bill 53—Exempts building and loan associations from State franchise tax.

House bill 119—Increases license taxes on moving-picture shows in large auditoriums.

House bill 457—Authorizes payment of $3.00 due M. P. Swann, treasurer of Powhatan County.

Senate bill 222—Prohibits sale of liquor and cigarettes in slot machines, and reduces license on machines selling shoestrings and weighing machines.

House bill 250—Permits erection of tollgates in Roanoke County.

House bill 312—Pays $16.15 to C. C. Cochran, deputy United States clerk, for fees in case transferred to Federal Court.

House bill 302—Protects milk, butter and muskrat in Nansmond County.

House bill 366—Provides dog license tax in Roanoke County.
